SUPPORTING VENICE HISTORY WITH THE VENICE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

HI EVERYONE

The Venice Historical Society, now in its 37th year, has weathered the "lock down" phase of the pandemic and now it's time to start up all our activities again.
But we need your help and support now more than ever.

We are inviting you to explore our membership and volunteer/intern opportunities at the Venice Historical Society. It's a wonderful place to learn about local history and how to preserve Venice including its fascinating historic landmarks. Have some fun and meet new friends,

- The Newsletter: We are looking for people to help research historic subjects, write articles and help put together our very popular 'Venice Journal'.
- Lectures: We are looking for people to help plan, set up and execute our informative and historic public lectures.
- Tour Guides & Docents: We need people who are interested in volunteering and internship for our popular walking tours on the beach, downtown Venice and the Venice walk streets.
